

Southshore Concert Band

... performing for the joy of music

“This One’s for Bernie”

“All the Sounds of the Earth Are Like Music”
Bernhardt M. Kuschel, 1916 – 2002

Dale L. Reuss, Conductor

Guest Conductors: Monte Sheedlo, Scott Boerma, and Troy Jones

Guest Soloist: Gary A. Cooper, Trombone

Troy Jones, Master of Ceremonies

Featuring the World Premiere Performance of:
Poem for Bernie Kuschel, by Scott Boerma

Mendel Center Mainstage

Sunday, April 27th, 2003

2:00 p.m.

“THIS ONE’S FOR BERNIE”
“All the Sounds of the Earth Are Like Music”
Bernhardt M. Kuschel, 1916 - 2002

- The Southshore March.....John Edmondson
Commissioned by the Southshore Concert Band, 2002
- Tiger Ragtradition for Benton Harbor High School Band
Troy Jones, Guest Conductor
- To the Summit! (Strive for the Highest).....Robert W. Smith
- The Washington Post March.....John Philip Sousa, ed. Fennell
- Blue Bells of Scotland, Air and VariationsArthur Pryor, arr. Pearson
Gary A. Cooper, Guest Soloist, Trombone
- Macarena..... Monterde, arr. A. Reed
- National Emblem March..... E. E. Bagley, ed. Fennell

INTERMISSION (15 minutes)

- Washington Greys.....Claudio S. Grafulla, arr. Schissel
- American Overture for Band.....Joseph Willcox Jenkins
- Poem for Bernie Kuschel.....Scott Boerma
Commissioned by the Southshore Concert Band, 2003
Scott Boerma, Guest Conductor for World Premier Performance
- Lassus Trombone..... Henry Fillmore, arr. Schissel
- Incantation and Dance..... John Barnes Chance
Monte Sheedlo, Guest Conductor
- Somewhere In Time(a fond farewell).....John Barry, arr. Custer PowerPoint presentation by Maxine Brown
- Benton Harbor Fight Song
Troy Jones, Guest Conductor
Audience please stand
- America, the Beautiful.....Samuel Ward, arr. Dragon
Bernie’s Concert Closer

This program is made possible in part by funding from:

The Frederick S. Upton Foundation; and
Arts Council of Greater Kalamazoo through
MICHIGAN COUNCIL FOR ARTS AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS

michigan council for arts and cultural affairs

arts council of greater kalamazoo