Our guest conductor today is Mr. Kenneth Bloomquist, conductor of bands for Michigan State University from 1970 to 1993. Under his direction, the MSU marching and symphonic bands rose to international stature for excellence.

In March 1993 Mr. Bloomquist was elected vice president of the American Bandmasters Association which will lead to the presidency of the organization in two years. Past presidents have included John Philip Sousa.

Mr. Bloomquist is currently involved in many projects in the United States, Japan, Indonesia and other areas around the world.
